Slings with zing

Recently parents have been revisiting baby slings as an alternative to bulky child carriers. The sling-style carrier a healthy way to carry your baby, encouraging baby wearing and allowing babies and toddlers to be held in a variety of natural positions. These z'fina slings (www.zfina.com) are proudly designed and manufactured in Canada and are available at The Baby Giraffe Children's Boutique in Abbotsford at Clayburn Centre, 520-3033 Immel St. 604.864.2233 or Teddy Bear Dreams in Chilliwack at 45903 Wellington Ave 604.792.3215.

The cradle position is ideal for newborns and babies up to 6 months. This position is great for sleeping and nursing babies.

The z'fina 365 Trek and Sport incorporates racing stripes, heavy duty outdoor style pockets and great designs in blue and brown fabrics.

The hip-baby position is the most popular position, allowing you hands-free movement. The z'fina baby slings can be used for newborn babies to toddlers weighing 35 pounds / 15.5 kilos.

The piggy-back position gives you maximum hands-free movement while your child is safely tucked behind you
